The Logic Behind Logic Games

Get the inside scoop on what it takes to do well on the LSAT. An LSAT prep representative will give you key strategies and tips to master the LSAT. Last but not least you will get a take-home, practice LSAT exam, so you can see how well you apply those strategies.

What's the 411?

For many prospective law students, getting together personal statements, letters of recommendation, LSAT scores, etc. can be overwhelming. This workshop will go over the admissions process and cover the importance of grades, LSAT scores, and choosing the right law school for you.

A MESSAGE FROM SWBLSA DIRECTOR OF PRE- LAW AFFAIRS

Greetings,

My name is Vaughnkerryah Tatum, and I am your region's Director of Pre-Law Affairs. On behalf of the Southwest Region of the National Black Law Students Association ("SWBLSA"), I cordially invite you to participate in our annual Pre-Law Symposium. The Pre-Law Symposium will be held in Fort Worth, Texas on Saturday, October 27, 2018, at Texas A&M University School of Law, located at 1515 Commerce St., Fort Worth, Texas 76102. This event is proudly hosted by the Southwest Region of the National Black Law Students Association.

The National Black Law Students Association (NBLSA) was established in 1968 and is the largest student-run organization in the United States, with over 200 chapters at law schools throughout the country and more than 6,000 active members. The newly created Southwest "SWBLSA" Region (formerly RMBLSA) is comprised of four states: Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas. But whether you fall within our region or not, this event is open to you!

The SWBLSA Pre-Law Symposium is tailored to meet the needs of prospective law students. The Symposium is a FREE event and open to anyone interested in the study of law. It is my hope that this year's Symposium peaks your interest, as it is the best way to gain a better understanding of the law school application and admission process and learn more about pursuing your legal career.

I look forward to seeing you all! If you have any questions or concerns, feel free to contact me via email at swblsa.prelaw@nblsa.org.
