

Jenny Carroll

Professor of Law

Texas A&M University School of Law

Jenny Carroll joined the Texas A&M University School of Law faculty in 2024. She graduated summa cum laude with an A.B. from Duke University and with honors with a J.D. from the University of Texas. She also holds an LL.M. from Georgetown University Law Center in Clinical Advocacy, which she earned in conjunction with the Prettyman Fellowship.

Prior to her years of practice as a public defender and teaching, she clerked for the Honorable William Wayne Justice of the United States District Court, Eastern District of Texas. She is the author of numerous law review articles appearing in journals such as the Yale Law Journal, the Georgetown Law Journal, the Texas Law Review, the Minnesota Law Review, the Alabama Law Review, the Florida Law Review, the Florida State University Law Review, the Fordham University Law Review, the North Carolina Law Review, the Virginia Law Review Online and the Northwestern Law Review Online. Professor Carroll has been an invited speaker at conferences across the country.

Professor Carroll teaches Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure, Comparative Criminal Law, and Juvenile Justice. She currently serves on National Association of Criminal Defense Attorneys' 11th Circuit Amicus Committee as a Vice-Chair and is past Chair of the Executive Committee of the American Association of Law School's Criminal Justice Section. In 2016 and 2024 she was appointed Chair of the Alabama State Advisory Committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights. She visited at Yale Law School in 2022 and served as the Director of the Liman Center in 2021.