

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW'S 7TH ANNUAL ENERGY SYMPOSIUM

THURSDAY, APRIL 2, 2015 - FRIDAY, APRIL 3, 2015

This two-day Symposium will feature presentations from more than twenty practitioners, scholars, and energy industry experts. Each presenter will draw on their unique expertise to provide insight into the most significant, forward-looking legal issues facing the energy industry.

LOCATION

Texas A&M University School of Law
Amon G. Carter Lecture Hall
1515 Commerce Street
Fort Worth, Texas 76102

TOPICS INCLUDE

Ethical Considerations in the Energy Industry
Developments in Energy Regulation
Title Issues in Oil and Gas
International Energy Policy
Energy Litigation Topics
Energy Securities and Investing
Financial Transactions in Oil and Gas
Alternative Energy

REGISTER

Register at www.tamulawreview.org or www.realpropertyjournal.org.

Registration Prices:

1 Day: $75

2 Day: $130

Breakfast/Lunch included in Registration Price

12.5 CLE Hours Pending
(1.5 hours of Ethics CLE)

KEYNOTE PRESENTERS

DAVID PORTER
Commissioner
Texas Railroad Commission

THEODORE W. PIROG
Senior Acquisition Engineer
XTO Energy
an ExxonMobil Subsidiary
"The Outlook for Energy:
A View for 2040"

If you have any questions or need further information, please contact:

Dwayne Lewis, Symposia Editor
symposia.editor@tamulawreview.org or

Deborah Barnett, Staff Advisor
dbarnett@law.tamu.edu

