

Searching for Justice: Modern Issues in Criminal Justice Reform

---

8:15-8:45am	Registration & Breakfast
8:45am	Opening Remarks, Lynne Rambo, Professor of Law, Texas A&M University School of Law
8:50-9:30am	Morning Keynote, Aisha Saleem, Assistant United States Attorney, Northern District of Texas, Fort Worth Division
9:30-10:50am	Reintroduction of the Sentencing Reform and Corrections Act Moderator: Amber Baylor, Professor of Law, Texas A&M University School of Law; Panelists: Alex Lewis, Assistant United States Attorney, Northern District of Texas, Deputy Criminal Chief, Fort Worth Division; Lisa A. Rich, Professor of Law, Texas A&M University School of Law; Caroline Lynch, former Chief Counsel to the House Crime Subcommittee
10:50-11:00am	Break
11:00-12:30pm	Mental Health Reform: Thinking of a New Solution Moderator: Malinda Seymore, Professor of Law, Texas A&M University School of Law; Panelists: Judge Cacciotti, Tarrant County Mental Health Magistrate; Lea Johnston, Professor of Law, University of Florida Levin College of Law; Chris Slobogin, Professor of Law, Vanderbilt University Law School
12:30-1:00pm	Lunch Break
1:00-2:00pm	Lunch Keynote, Haley Holik, Esq., Policy Analyst, Center for Effective Justice, Texas Public Policy Foundation
2:00-2:10pm	Break
2:10-3:45pm	Conviction Integrity, Junk Science & the Role DNA plays in Wrongful Convictions Moderator: Meg Penrose, Professor of Law, Texas A&M University School of Law; Panelists: Mike Ware, IPTX Executive Director, Adjunct Professor, Texas A&M University School of Law; Kristie Mayhugh, San Antonio Four Exonerated; Dr. Angie Ambers, Forensic Geneticist/DNA Analyst, Center for Human Identification
3:45pm	Closing Remarks, Madeline Pricer, Symposia Editor, Texas A&M Law Review