

Aggie Law Celebrates Fall 2016 Commencement
37 Students to be Honored

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Fort Worth, TX, Dec. 16, 2016 – Today, Texas A&M University School of Law held its fall Hooding and Commencement ceremony, celebrating the graduation of 37 Aggie Law students.

Prior to commencement, the law school honored the veterans who are members of this graduating class through a special cording ceremony. Each received a distinct graduation cord, symbolizing the contributions made by the members of our armed services.

Commencement took place at 1 p.m. today at the Fort Worth Convention Center, and included a keynote address from Texas A&M University System Board Regent Charles W. Schwartz.

Members of the Fall 2016 graduating class are:

- Brett Adkins
- Anna Amiot
- Gabriel Arteaga
- Francisco Balderrama
- Andrew Bell
- Brittany Brantley
- Samantha Burns
- Elan Cabrero
- Jennifer Carroll (Veteran)
- Daniela Clark
- Thomas Connally
- Jonathan Cravens
- Desiree Day
- Pamela Dayer
- Taylor Dennington
- Deanna Franzen (Veteran)
- Kaylene Garcia
- Nicholas Gerner
- Serena Greene (Veteran)
- David Hagestad
- Jordan Hartsell
- Antonette Hunt
- Kursten King
- Hector Leal Brol (Veteran)

- Amanda Martinez
- Matthew Masek (Veteran)
- Kevin Merchants
- Lynne Nash
- Michael Navarro
- Jennifer Rackley
- Timothy Ross (Veteran)
- Caitlin Schneider
- Hollis Sullivan
- Rachael Swernofsky
- Rebecca Tejada
- Jessica Temple
- Carl Zoellner

Media Contact:

Rebecca C. Walden, Director of Marketing
Texas A&M University School of Law
1515 Commerce Street
Fort Worth, TX 76102
rcwalden@law.tamu.edu
817-212-3933

###