Texas A&M School of Law ‘Birdies & ‘Bugs’ Community Weekend April 11-12

FORT WORTH, Texas – Texas A&M University School of Law welcomes alumni, faculty, staff, students, community members and their families for the seventh annual Greenhill Golf Tournament and crawfish boil -- a weekend of “Birdies & ‘Bugs,” April 11-12.

Festivities begin at Sky Creek Ranch Golf Club in Keller on Friday, April 11, at noon for lunch and registration at the Greenhill Golf Tournament -- a scramble-format tournament with prizes. Shotgun start will be at 1:30 p.m. Proceeds from the event benefit the Chief Justice Joe Greenhill Endowed Scholarship at the law school. The Greenhill Scholarship is awarded to a Texas A&M law student who excels academically and plans to work in public service.

The fun continues on Saturday, April 12, at the Community Crawfish Boil – the law school’s largest annual event. The “Party in the Parking Lot” draws more than 350 people for live music, all-you-can-eat crawfish and shrimp, drinks, kids’ activities and more. Tickets are available online through April 9 and at the event, held at the law school campus in downtown Fort Worth.

Proceeds from the Crawfish Boil benefit the Dean’s Excellence Fund at the law school. The fund supports faculty research, student scholarships and community outreach initiatives.
