Concentration Requirements

Dispute Resolution is a concentration that focuses on negotiation, mediation and arbitration that seeks to settle disputes outside of the courtroom.

To concentrate in Dispute Resolution, students must achieve a minimum grade of 2.33 in each graded course used to satisfy the Concentration’s course requirements. Courses offered for a grade may not be taken pass/fail in satisfaction of the course requirements. Note: Because the Concentration requirements were changed in May, 2017, students who matriculated before the Fall Semester of 2017 and have questions about substituting other courses to meet the new Concentration requirements should consult with faculty advisors, Professor Peter Reilly or Professor Cynthia Alkon.
