AUTOMATIC WITHDRAWAL DURING SUMMER SESSION

Students should consider their academic standing when enrolling for summer courses. Under Academic Standard 9.2.5, any student dismissed for academic deficiency after the spring semester while enrolled in the summer term will be immediately withdrawn from classes (even if the student petitions for probation). Tuition is reimbursed in accordance with state regulations and dismissed students will receive no tuition refund for the summer session. If you have any questions please contact Student Services at the Law School, 817-212-4001, or email law-registrar@tamu.edu.

REGISTRATION PROCEDURES

There are several ways to register. (We cannot take telephone or faxed registration requests.)

1. Howdy [click for link] Available under the My Records tab. (This cannot be used for limited enrollment courses or courses requiring professor approval.) A registration tutorial can also be found there for your convenience.

2. Electronic Registration Form. [click for link] This form should be used primarily for limited enrollment courses and courses requiring professor approval. It is available through the law school website Student Services page. If you choose to submit an electronic registration form for non-limited enrollment courses, please be aware that it could take up to 24-48 hours to process these forms.

Other Important Registration Rules

- You must register for limited enrollment courses and courses requiring professor approval electronically through the law school website Student Services page.
- Student Services will e-mail your @email.tamu.edu account if your registration request cannot be processed for any reason.

Adding and Dropping Classes

Students may add classes from March 25–May 22. After May 22, students may add classes only with the permission of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and a late fee may be assessed. The last day to drop a course is May 22.

Limited Enrollment Classes & Waitlists

You must submit an Electronic Course Registration form to Student Services to register for limited enrollment classes (identified as such in the schedule). Student Services will register students for these classes prioritized by each student’s earned hours. Students should submit the Course Registration form to Student Services on the day of their priority registration. Waitlisting for these classes will be prioritized by each student’s earned hours. Student Services will notify by e-mail all students who have requested registration in these classes to let them know whether they are registered or waitlisted. If you do not see your registration on Howdy, check your law school e-mail or contact Student Services to inquire about your waitlist status.

Important message about waitlists: If you are waitlisted for a class, you must submit a course drop form to be removed from that waitlist. If a seat becomes available at any time and you have not submitted a course drop form, you will be registered for that class accordingly. If a seat becomes available and we cannot register you due to a time conflict or overload, and we cannot reach you, we will move to the next person on the waitlist. Please monitor your e-mail frequently if you are on a waitlist.
Enrollment Limits and Enrollment Certification

Full-time students may take up to 8 credit hours. Part-time students may take up to 6 credit hours. The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs must approve requests for overloads. Such requests are granted only under exceptional circumstances. Students must enroll in a minimum of four credits to be eligible for financial aid.

Students who work more than 20 hours a week may take no more than 6 credit hours, including non-classroom courses such as externship. Students enrolled in more than 6 credit hours must certify that they are not employed more than 20 hours per week. Students who increase employment hours during the term must decrease their academic load to part time.

Externship Applications and Registration

There are opportunities part-time and full-time, both locally and nationally. Students can obtain a part-time placement in any field of practice and a residency (full-time) placement in any field of practice (excluding those in law firms) or can specialize in public policy. Please visit the Externship website page for additional information about externships.

Part-time Externship

The Externship Director registers a student in Externship or Externship II upon approval of their requested placement.

- Externship: Students who have not externed before or are taking, for the first time, an externship with a court, in-house legal department or criminal law, will be enrolled in Externship I and attend the associated seminar consisting of class meetings, usually every other week.
- Externship II: Students who have already taken the seminar associated for their placement type will be enrolled in Externship II which consists of a combination of group and individual meetings.

Application Required. Deadline to apply for part-time summer externships: May 1. Students interested must apply by deadline even if placement is not confirmed.

- Prerequisites: At least 29 completed hours; minimum 2.33 GPA; no honor code violations.
- This is a Pass/Fail course.
- This course counts toward the experiential requirement.

Residency Externships: Application and professor approval required before enrollment. Please visit the Externship website page for additional information regarding prerequisites, deadlines and course requirements for the Public Policy or Semester-in Practice programs.

Distance Education Learning (online)

A student may not earn more than a total of 30 credit hours toward the J.D. degree for approved distance education courses. All distance education courses have a prerequisite of one year in law school in the full-time or part-time program in addition to any other prerequisite.

Students are expected to meet basic technology requirements to successfully participate in an online course. Failure to meet these requirements may result in problems accessing the course materials. It is the student's responsibility to ensure all requirements are met prior to the start of the course. Students are expected to know how to manage computer issues and to have reliable technologies to fulfill course requirements. An up-to-date PC or Mac-based computer, a working webcam, and access to high-speed internet is required. Please see the University's minimum computer requirements for more information.

Courses delivered online may be either synchronous or asynchronous. Synchronous online classes require students and instructors to be online at the same time. Lectures, discussions, chats, etc. occur at a specific time. All students must be online at that specific hour in order to participate.
With asynchronous online courses, lectures, assignments, and other materials are posted online and students may access the material at any time, although the instructor generally sets a definite time period in which students may participate in each online class.

Hybrid courses (also known as blended courses) include both face-to-face classroom meetings and an online component. The online component may be either synchronous or asynchronous.

Independent Study

Independent Study is a one-credit course graded on a pass/fail basis. To receive credit, the student must spend at least 60 hours during the semester in which the student enrolls in Independent Study. Students are responsible for keeping a log of their hours and submitting the log to the supervising faculty member at the end of the semester.

A student may satisfy an independent study by researching and writing a paper of at least 10 pages or reading materials assigned by the sponsoring faculty member. Assigned readings must relate to a particular theme, and the student must produce either a single descriptive paper illustrating a thorough understanding of the subject or a series of papers summarizing the contents of the assigned reading materials. A student may earn no more than two credits through Independent Study.

Students may not enroll in an Independent Study without the consent of a faculty sponsor, who must be a full-time faculty member. The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs may approve Independent Study credit with an adjunct faculty member if a full-time faculty member acts as a co-sponsor for the student and reviews the student's work product.

Changing Status (Part-Time or Full Time)

Students who have not completed their lockstep courses may change status only under the conditions set out in Academic Standard 11.1 found in the Student Handbook. Students who have completed their lockstep classes may change status only with the approval of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs before registration for the semester or session in which the change would be effective.

Cancellation of Classes

Classes may be cancelled for low enrollment. This decision is made by the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs.

Pass/Fail Election

Students must designate the election of the pass/fail option by submitting an Electronic or Paper Pass/Fail Request Form to Student Services no later than Friday, May 24, 2024. You will not be able to elect the pass/fail option when you register online. You must obtain the pass/fail election form from Student Services or the law school web site and submit the completed form to Student Services. To preserve anonymity, students must not communicate a pass/fail election to the professor.

A student may not elect to take a lockstep course, a required course, a course taken to satisfy a rigorous writing requirement, a course taken to satisfy the upper-level experiential requirement, or a course taken to satisfy the requirements for a concentration program on a Pass/Fail basis, unless the course is offered only on a Pass/Fail basis.

Student Services must first verify your eligibility for pass/fail credit. Please review section 8.5 of the law school’s Academic Standards found in the Student Handbook for rules and limitations on pass/fail credits.

Students may count up to 18 credit hours earned in courses graded on a pass-fail basis towards the total numbers of hours required for graduation and, within those 18 hours, may elect to take up to 3 credit hours of letter-graded courses pass-fail. To receive a P in these elected courses, student will need to receive a C or better. A student who receives below a C will receive the actual grade earned. This does not apply to courses graded only pass/fail. Please note that courses graded on a pass/fail basis in spring 2020 are not included in the overall limit on pass/fail hours.

Attendance Policy

Students are advised to review section 5 of the law school Academic Standards found in the Student Handbook for the complete attendance policy.

The Law School requires regular and punctual class attendance by all students in all courses taken for credit. Students are expected to adhere to the attendance requirements set forth in Section 5.2 in the Student Handbook, for lockstep courses, law clinics, externships and condensed format classes. For all other classes, a faculty member may adopt a more specific attendance requirement by communicating that requirement, including any potential penalties for failing to regularly and punctually attend class, in writing in the course syllabus which will be provided to students no later than the first day of classes.

Class work is essential to the educational program at the Law School, and student participation is expected in all courses. The expectation for class participation of students is separate and independent from attendance. Thus, faculty have the discretion to impose grade reduction or other appropriate sanctions for failing to meaningfully participate in classroom work.

Exterionships: All externship seminars require regular attendance in a classroom component which will meet every week for 7 weeks during the summer session. Students enrolled in a 7-week externship that meets once per week may not miss more than 1 seminar class. Once a student has missed more than 1 class they will be withdrawn from the externship and a failing grade will be issued.

Condensed Format Courses: Special attendance requirements for condensed format courses are explained in the description of the courses to which they apply. Due to the collaborative and condensed nature of courses scheduled for five or fewer total class meetings during the summer term, regular and punctual attendance for all class meetings is mandatory. A student who is absent in a condensed format course for any reason will be withdrawn from that course, will have a W entered on his or her transcript, and will not receive credit for the course.

Official days and times for make-ups for cancelled classes:

| All day classes | Monday-Friday | 12:00 noon |
| All evening classes | Friday evening |

These are the official make-up times. An absence from a make-up scheduled during the official make-up time IS counted toward the maximum number of allowable absences for the class. An absence from a make-up scheduled at a time other than the official make-up time IS NOT counted.

Tuition and Fee Refund Policy

The tuition and refund policy can be found on the Current Students page of the law school website. Click here to view the policy. Please contact Student Business Services at 817-212-4081 with any additional questions.

Warning: If you drop a summer session class you may no longer be eligible for financial aid. Contact the financial aid office at 817-212-4090 for more information.
CREDIT HOUR POLICY

A complete copy of the law school’s credit hour policy is available on the law school’s website. The following excerpt summarizes the relevant provisions of the credit hour policy for this term.

The Law School adheres to the federal1 and ABA2 definitions of a credit hour. ABA Standard 310(b) provides:

A "credit hour" is an amount of work that reasonably approximates:

1) not less than one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction3 and two hours of out-of-class student work4 per week for fifteen weeks, or the equivalent amount of work over a different amount of time; or

2) at least an equivalent amount of work as required in subparagraph (1) of this definition for other academic activities as established by the institution, including simulation, field placement, clinical, co-curricular, and other academic work leading to the award of credit hours.5

The academic calendar at the Law School includes two fifteen-week semesters, the fall and spring terms, each of which includes a one week reading period/break from classes, and a two-week examination period. The summer term includes one seven week class session and a one-week examination period. The winter session is a one-week term with an examination, paper or project.

Credit for Classroom Instruction

Students are required to complete 90 credit hours to graduate. Each hour of classroom credit is based on at least 50 minutes of direct faculty instruction. For each credit hour of classroom instruction, students shall spend, on average, a minimum of 2 hours (based on a 60-minute hour) on out-of-class work during the semester. Clinics and externship hours are calculated differently. See below for further explanation on the credit hour policy for clinics and externships.

Summer Term

A four-credit course will ordinarily meet for 400 minutes each week for 7 weeks, followed by an examination period. Students are expected to spend, on average, a minimum of 16 hours on out-of-class work per week during the term.

A three-credit course will ordinarily meet for 300 minutes each week for 7 weeks, followed by an examination period. Students are expected to spend, on average, a minimum of 12 hours on out-of-class work per week during the term.

A two-credit course will ordinarily meet for 200 minutes each week for 7 weeks, followed by an examination period. Students are expected to spend, on average, a minimum of 8 hours on out-of-class work per week during the term.

A one-credit course will ordinarily meet for 100 minutes each week for 7 weeks, followed by an examination period. Students are expected to spend, on average, a minimum of 4 hours on out-of-class work per week during the term.

If a class does not meet every week or does not have an examination, an equivalent amount of time will be allocated during the term to direct classroom instruction and student out-of-class work per week.

For distance education classes, students are expected to spend an equivalent amount of time for direct classroom instruction on activities involving course instruction – attending synchronous class sessions, viewing class lectures, completing and reading discussion board posts, completing weekly assessments and attending weekly office hours. In addition, for each credit hour of course instruction, students shall spend, on average, a minimum of 4 hours (based on a 60-minute hour) on out-of-class work during the semester, such as completing assigned readings, reviewing class notes, studying for any quizzes and exams and completing any written projects or assignments.

Credit for Externships

Students enrolled in Externship I must attend a seminar. Students enrolled in Externship II must attend individual and group meetings led by the Externship Program Director. Students enrolled in Residency Externship-Public Policy attend a corresponding seminar. Please see registration materials for the externship seminar or meeting schedule.

Travel time does not count for hours. Academic credit is awarded on a pass/fail basis.

Credit for Independent Study

Students enrolled in Independent Study are eligible to receive one hour of academic credit for performing at least 60 hours on the assignment during the term in which the student is enrolled. Students are responsible for keeping a log of their hours and submitting the log to the supervising faculty member at the end of the semester. Academic credit is awarded on a pass/fail basis.
JURIS DOCTOR REQUIREMENTS

J.D. students are advised to consult the Student Handbook for the applicable academic standards governing the students’ graduation requirements at the law school. The following summary provides guidance to students based on the requirements set forth in the Student Handbook, but is not a substitute for the official requirements contained in the Student Handbook.

No required courses may be elected as pass/fail.

Lockstep Classes

The lockstep courses for students who began law school in or after fall 2017 are: ADR Survey; Civil Procedure; Contracts; Criminal Law; LARW I & II; Legislation & Regulation; Professional Identity; Property; and Torts. Please see the Student Handbook for a more detailed explanation of the sequence of the lockstep curriculum.

Upper Level Requirements for Graduation

Students who began law school in or after fall 2017 must successfully complete these upper-level courses during their second year of law school and before graduation:

- Constitutional Law
- Professional Responsibility

In addition, students who began law school in or after fall 2017 must successfully complete a LARW III course before graduation. Please see the Student Handbook for a more detailed explanation of the upper level requirements for graduation.

Important Note on Upper Level Required Courses:

2023-2024 Academic Year

For course rotations and to assist in your academic planning, please review “Planning Your Course of Study,” available on the law school website. (Please note that this document is updated in the spring of each year.) The document includes a listing of when advanced required and core courses will generally be offered by semester and division.

Experiential Requirement

Students who began law school in or after fall 2017 must successfully complete a minimum of six hours of experiential coursework. As part of the six credit hours, students must successfully complete an approved externship or clinic that involves advising or representing one or more actual clients or serving as a third-party neutral.

The following summer classes count toward the overall experiential requirement:

- Externship I & II (1-4)

The following summer classes count toward the live client component of the overall experiential requirement:

- Externship I & II (1-4)

Rigorous Writing Requirement

Students must satisfy the rigorous writing requirement by completing a law journal comment; or by taking a seminar, completing the required paper, and earning a grade of at least a B- on the paper. Please review section 3.4 of the law school’s Academic Standards found in the Student Handbook for rules and limitations on the rigorous writing requirement.
CONCENTRATION PROGRAMS

A concentration is a specialized course of study analogous, in part, to a major in college. Earning a concentration is an official acknowledgment, and a representation to employers, that a student has developed a certain expertise in a particular area of the law.

Certificates of concentration will be available to students once they have satisfied the requirements for the applicable concentration program. Generally, each concentration requires a grade point average of at least 2.33 in at least 14-16 hours of related, qualifying courses. Questions about the law school's concentrations, including the course requirements for each, should be directed to the faculty supervisor for the particular concentration:

DISTANCE EDUCATION (ONLINE) COURSES

Normally, a student may not earn more than a total of 30 credit hours toward the J.D. degree for approved distance education courses. The Law School received a variance from this distance education limitation due to the ongoing global pandemic for 2020-2021. Under this variance, none of the distance education courses offered in the 2020-2021 academic year will count towards a student’s 30 credit hour limitation on distance education. All distance education courses have a prerequisite of one year in law school in the full-time or part-time program in addition to any other prerequisite.

Students are expected to meet basic technology requirements to successfully participate in an online course. Failure to meet these requirements may result in problems accessing the course materials. It is the student’s responsibility to ensure all requirements are met prior to the start of the course.

Classes will be delivered online asynchronously and may include students from other law schools. With asynchronous online courses, lectures, assignments, and other materials are posted online and students may access the material at any time, although the instructor generally sets a definite time period in which students may participate in each online class. Registered students will receive orientation and training in how to participate in this course. Final exam will be online. Students will be graded according to the School of Law Academic Standards.

Attendance requirements: All asynchronous distance education course activities run on a weekly schedule determined by the professor. Students have weekly deadlines to turn in assignments and to post in discussion boards. Students who have viewed each lecture in its entirety and met these weekly deadlines are counted as present. Students may miss no more than 1 weekly requirement (e.g. view each lecture in its entirety, participate substantively in the discussion boards, and submit weekly assignments) for completion of the course. Students with excessive absences will be withdrawn from the course and receive no credit. Please note failure to complete weekly requirements by the applicable deadline may also result in a grade penalty on the assignment, such as a grade reduction, loss of points or a zero on the assignment, as determined by the professor.

Business Associations (Special Topics)

LAW-7900-701 CRN 33469
4 Credits Professor: Chatman

Basic principles of varying business entities used to conduct ventures for profit; fundamental agency principles, partnerships, limited liability companies, and corporations; how business organizations are formed; powers and responsibilities of their respective partners, members, officers or directors; shareholder’s rights and liabilities; primary focus on corporation and corporate law; includes pre-incorporation issues, the corporate formation process, and corporate capital and financing; business entity taxation concepts may be covered as well; foundational and practical knowledge of how business organizations work; assessing which type of business organization is best suited for a particular client's objectives; legal formalities necessary in forming said organization; understanding the rights, duties and obligations for those affiliated.

Prerequisites: One year of law school in the full-time or part-time program.
Criminal Procedure (Special Topics)
LAW-7900-702  CRN 33470
3 Credits  Professor: Wright

Issues relating to constitutional constraints on the investigation and prosecution of criminal offenses.

Prerequisites: One year of law school in the full-time or part-time program.

eDiscovery (Special Topics)
LAW-7900-703  CRN 33471
3 Credits  Professor: Schultz

Increasingly, attorneys are becoming “general contractors” when it comes to certain highly technical areas of the law. This is certainly true of the practice of eDiscovery. Unless you have chosen to make eDiscovery the focus of your practice, you will most likely instead be charged with assembling – and then managing – the right team of attorney specialists, technologists, and allied professionals who will conduct the eDiscovery components of cases on your behalf and under your direction. Any attorney serving in such a capacity will need to know enough about the law and technical aspects of eDiscovery to assemble the right team, keep costs under control, and ensure that legal and ethical obligations to clients, the court, and opponents are met and discharged. This course endeavors to impart such “general contractor” knowledge and expertise.

Prerequisites: One year of law school in the full-time or part-time program.

Evidence (Special Topics)
LAW-7900-704  CRN 33472
4 Credits  Professor: Wonsowicz

This course examines the law of proof and focuses on the Federal Rules of Evidence. The language, purpose, and policies underlying the evidence rules are stressed throughout in order to make the rules meaningful, predictable, and functional. In addition to covering the substantive rules of evidence, this course will explore the use of the rules of evidence as a tactical device to develop the narrative of a case and to disrupt the opponent’s narrative. Accordingly, the theme of this course is pragmatic, with a problem-based emphasis. The rules of evidence will be examined from an advocate’s perspective in order to develop students’ knowledge of what facts matter and how those facts can be proven.

Prerequisites: One year of law school in the full-time or part-time program.

Family Law (Special Topics)
LAW-7900-705  CRN 33473
3 Credits  Professor: Wilson

Study of legal problems related to the establishment, dissolution, reorganization, and evolving definitions of the family and family-like relationships in America; includes premarital arrangements, marriage (formal and informal), divorce, parent-child relationship, division of marital property, spousal and child support, domestic violence within the family, and same-sex unions.

Prerequisites: One year of law school in the full-time or part-time program.
Healthcare Compliance (Special Topics)
LAW-7900-707       CRN 33475
3 Credits           Professor: TBD

Understanding the complexities of the healthcare compliance process from practical, business and legal perspectives; components of an effective compliance plan and program as well as the issues that arise in the implementation and administration of a compliance plan; discover the many roles the compliance staff fulfill in encouraging compliance with laws, regulations and ethical principles and gain familiarity with some of the more significant issues that arise when allegations of noncompliance come to the attention of the federal and state governments.

Prerequisites: One year of law school in the full-time or part-time program.

Legal Malpractice (Special Topics)
LAW-7900-TBD       CRN TBD
2 Credits           Professor: Fortney

This course examines legal malpractice law, policy and problems. The course uses a problem-oriented approach to help students understand legal malpractice theories and defenses with an emphasis on risk management and preventing legal malpractice.

Prerequisites: One year of law school in the full-time or part-time program.

National Security Law (Special Topics)
LAW-7900-706       CRN 33474
3 Credits           Professor: Guiora

Examination of criminal and civil statutes, Supreme Court cases, executive orders and government policies that impact U.S. national security; relevant to prosecutors, criminal defense attorneys and lawyers representing state and federal agencies, law enforcement, technology companies, as well as individuals served by these entities.

Prerequisites: One year of law school in the full-time or part-time program.

Secured Transactions
LAW-7488-701       CRN 33477
3 Credits           Professor: TBD

This course examines the rules governing transactions in which personal property and fixtures are used as collateral to secure an obligation. The primary source of authority is Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code, but students will also be introduced to other applicable laws, including primarily the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. This body of law addresses not only the rights of the debtor and creditor inter se but also the rights of third parties with an interest in the collateral.

Prerequisites: One year of law school in the full-time or part-time program.
